Cape May Restaurant Week is October 18-25, 2009

Sponsored by Cape May Magazine and the Chamber of Commerce of Greater Cape May, the second Cape May Restaurant Week will showcase some of Cape May's best restaurants in an 8-day event offering fixed-price menus, which makes the event tempting and affordable.

There are three tiers of dining offered: dinner menus for $35.09 and $22.09, and lunch menus priced at $16.09. For dinner menus, all participating restaurants will offer a three-course meal, including appetizer, entrée and dessert. Lunch menus will include two or three courses. Beverage, tax and gratuities are not included. All types of restaurants, from casual beachfront to fine dining, are encouraged to participate.

There is no additional cost for diners to participate, and no tickets are needed for the event. Diners are advised to make reservations in advance (if available). A list of participating restaurants, reservation information, and menus is available at the official Cape May Restaurant Week website, www.cmrestaurantweek.com.

Early restaurant registration is available through September 30 for $100; after September 30, registration is $150. Download registration forms and participation rules at www.cmrestaurantweek.com.

Cape May's first Restaurant Week took place May 31 – June 7, 2009 with 31 participating restaurants.
